

PICTURE PLAYS ON WEEK'S PROGRAM

play Theaters Feature
Many Stars.

"The Scarlet Letter," a photoplay adaptation of Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic, holds the screen at Crandall's today, tomorrow, and Tuesday. The story concerns the tragic love of Rev. Arthur Dimmesdale, a New England minister, in Puritan days, and the woman he loved, upon whose breast was seared the letter "A," the punishment meted out by the stern New Englanders upon those who loved unwisely.

Start Holmes is pictured in the leading role and the cast also contains the names of Mary Maglin, Florence Ashbrook, Kittens Reichert, Robert Vivian, and Dan Mason. Commencing Wednesday and remaining for the rest of the week, the much heralded Bluebird subject, "Idle Wives," will be the attraction. It is founded upon James Oppenheim's story of society idlers who shirk life's most sacred responsibilities. Mary Maglin, Edward G. Robinson, Lois Weber, and Phillipa Smalley enact the principal roles.

Savoy. A photoplay adaptation of the classic fairy tale by the Brothers Grimm, holds the screen at Crandall's Savoy both today and tomorrow with dainty Marguerite Clark pictured in the titular role.

Freighton Hale, Dorothy Cumming, Lionel Braham, and Alice Washburn appear in the supporting cast. For Tuesday, Mabel Taliaferro will be pictured in "A Wife by Proxy."

Wednesday's attraction is "American Aristocracy," featuring Douglas Fairbanks, the athletic star. The program for the remainder of the week is announced as follows: Thursday, Ethel Clayton and Rockliffe Fellowes in "The Bondage of Fear"; Friday, Dorothy Gish in "The Children of the Feud," with the Keystone comedy, "Safety First," and "Brother," featuring Mack Swain, as a supplementary attraction; Saturday, William Desmond and Dorothy Donnelly in "A Gamble in Souls."

Avenue Grand. Crandall's Avenue Grand offers "The Man Who Forgot" as its photoplay attraction for today. This picture which was adapted from the story by James Hay, Jr., a former Washington newspaper man, provides a powerful object lesson of the evils of drink. Robert Warwick, Doris Kenyon, and Gerda Holmes are the featured players.

"Somewhere in France," adapted from Richard Harding Davis' story of that name, will hold the screen tomorrow, Louise Glum being pictured in the principal role.

The Keystone comedy, "Bubbles of Trouble," will also be shown. The program for the remainder of the week is as follows: Tuesday, Lenore Ulrich in "The Intrigue"; Wednesday, Mabel Taliaferro in "A Wife by Proxy," and Bushman and Bayne in the fourth episode of "The Great Secret"; Thursday, Valeria Suratt and Harry Hilliard in "The New York Peacock"; Friday, Bessie Love in "A Sister of Sin," and Mack Swain in "His Bitter Pill"; Saturday, Blanche Sweet in "The Storm."

Apollo. "The Pride of the Clan," a photoplay featuring Mary Pickford, will hold the screen at Crandall's Apollo both today and tomorrow. In this picture Miss Pickford is seen in the role of a Scotch lassie. The leading male character is portrayed by Matt Moore.

"The Man Who Forgot," the photoplay that was made in Washington from the story of James Hay, Jr., will be the attraction Tuesday. Robert Warwick, Doris Kenyon, and Gerda Holmes are featured.

Other attractions for the current week are announced as follows: Wednesday, Gladys Coburn in "The Primitive Call"; Thursday, Mabel Taliaferro in "A Wife by Proxy"; Friday, Tom Mix in "Twisted Trails"; and Bushman and Bayne in the fourth episode of "The Great Secret"; Saturday, Frank McIntyre and Doris Kenyon in "The Traveling Salesman."

Leader. The first showing in this city of Blanche Sweet in "The Evil Eye," the Lasky-Paramount picture, will occur at the Leader Theater today and Monday. This thrilling story by Hector Turnbull was founded upon an occurrence in one of the vineyards in California's famous wine producing country. In the photodrama, as in the actual incident from which the story was written, a woman doctor was sent to the Mexican settlement to suppress a diphtheria outbreak among the laborers and their families. In order to examine the throats of her patients the doctor wore one of the familiar electric lamps on her forehead.

Several of the people examined by the physician were beyond recovery and shortly died. The superstitious Mexicans promptly decided that they had been killed by "the evil eye" on the doctor's forehead and promptly devised a plan to capture the woman and burn out her eyes. How the plan is frustrated through the cleverness of the owner of the vineyard, and how he and the fair physician are finally united, is brought about in a number of unusual scenes.

Tuesday and Wednesday Louise Huff and Jack Pickford will be seen as co-stars in a film version of "Charles Dickens' 'Great Expectations'."

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday Pauline Frederick will be seen in "Zaza."

CONCERTS FOR CAPITAL

Musical Treats Provided for Residents and Visitors. The fourth Boston Symphony concert is to be given in the New National Theater next Tuesday afternoon, February 13, at 4:30. The symphony will be the "Eroica," of Beethoven, the third in the series of nine, and by many considered the noblest of them all. There will be no soloist, and the program contains a wide variety of interesting music. After the symphony will be played the glittering

NEXT WEEK'S BILL OF PLAYS IN FILM

Advance Announcement of
Theaters.

"A Square Deal," featuring June Evidge and Carlyle Blackwell, will form the attraction at Crandall's on next Sunday and Monday.

The picture is laid in the Bohemian section of New York city in McDougall street, the little thoroughfare in which so many famous artists have their studios and homes. Muriel Osterich and Henry Hull also have prominent places in the cast. Clara Kimball Young in "Hearts in Exile," will hold the screen on the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday following. A return showing of the comedy feature subject, "Tillie Wakes Up," featuring Marie Dressler and John Hines, is scheduled for the following Friday, while Saturday's attraction will be "The Hungry Heart," adapted from the play, "Frou Frou," and featuring Alice Brady.

Savoy. "The Pride of the Clan," second of the Mary Pickford subjects released by that popular young star's own organization and featuring her in the principal role, will be shown, it is announced, at Crandall's Savoy on both next Sunday and Monday.

On the following Tuesday the Metro subject, "The White Raven," the story of a dance hall girl of the Alaskan mining camp, will hold the screen. Ethel Barrymore is the featured player. The comedy, "Married, But—," featuring Ralph Herz, will be shown on this day as a supplementary attraction.

Other pictures for the week are as follows: Wednesday, Pauline Frederick in "The Slave Market"; Thursday, Marie Dressler and John Hines in "Tillie Wakes Up"; Friday, a Triangle feature photoplay and a Keystone comedy, titles to be announced later; Saturday, Jack Pickford and Louise Huff in a photoplay version of the Dickens classic, "Great Expectations."

Avenue Grand. A woman's fight to win happiness is the theme of the melodramatic photoplay, "The Bondage of Fear," which is to be shown at Crandall's Avenue Grand next Sunday. Ethel Clayton is the featured player and she is supported by Rockliffe Fellowes.

Arthur Ashley and John Bowers are also in the cast. A Triangle drama and a Keystone comedy, titles to be announced later, will be shown on Monday.

Other attractions for the week are as follows: Tuesday, Susan Raye and Myrtle Stedman in "The Soul of Kura San"; Wednesday, Ethel Barrymore in "The White Raven," and Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the fifth episode of "The Great Secret"; Thursday, Stuart Holmes in "The Scarlet Letter"; Friday, Triangle attractions to be announced later; Saturday, Fannie Ward in "Witchcraft."

Apollo.

A picturization of "Snow White," the fairy tale by the Brothers Grimm, will hold the screen at Crandall's Apollo on next Sunday and also on the following Monday. Marguerite Clark enacts the role of the little princess who almost became the victim of her designing stepmother, the queen.

On the following Tuesday, the World Film Corporation's drama, "The Bondage of Fear," featuring Ethel Clayton and Rockliffe Fellowes, will be shown.

Other attractions to be exhibited during the week are as follows: Wednesday, Gladys Brockwell and Jack Standing in "One Touch of Sin"; Thursday, Ethel Barrymore in "The White Raven"; Friday, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the fifth episode of the serial, "The Great Secret"; Saturday, Vivian Martin in "The Right Direction."

G. W. U. PLAYERS REHEARSE

Preparing for Presentation of Comedy on February 22.

The George Washington University players are rehearsing nightly for "A Night Off," which they will give in the auditorium of Central High School February 22. Tickets for the play are being sold by the high schools, who are to receive half the proceeds. The other half, which the George Washington players receive, will go toward paying the athletic bills of the university.

FAIRBANKS BEATS CHAPLIN SALARY

Our Foremost Fighting American Is to Get $15,000 a Week!

A contract was closed in New York last Wednesday afternoon between Douglas Fairbanks, film star, and the Artcraft Pictures Corporation, film producers, whereby Fairbanks is to receive a flat salary of $15,000 a week for appearing only in the Artcraft's photoplay productions. This modest remuneration amounts to a paltry $250,000 a year, which is exactly eleven times more than the salary paid to the President of the United States and which, also, is a high water record for salaries given in the film industry.

As a matter of fact the amazing contract signed by Fairbanks gives him $5,000 a week more than the sum now being paid to Mary Pickford and $150,000 a year more than the huge salary paid to Charlie Chaplin, and which staggered theatrical circles less than a year ago. There was much comment some weeks ago when George M. Cohan accepted an offer of $100,000 for acting, producing, and releasing the film rights to "Broadway Jones." But Cohan already has worked four weeks on the production and reports from Florida intimate that he will be kept busy at least six more weeks. Therefore, he will receive for his acting, his work as a director, and his interests as the author of "Broadway Jones" not more than $10,000 a week, while Fairbanks is getting $15,000 a week merely for his work before the camera.

His new alliance will make him an associate with Mary Pickford and George M. Cohan. His new managers will turn out only photoplays posed by Miss Pickford, Cohan, and Fairbanks.

TO HOLD PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

The Rev. H. F. Humphries, of Baltimore, will be the principal speaker this afternoon at a patriotic service of the District of Columbia Society, Sons of the Revolution in St. John's Episcopal Church, Lafayette square, at 4 o'clock.

The following will assist in conducting the service: The Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Church; the Rev. B. H. McKim, the Rev. John Van Schaick, Jr., the Rev. George H. McGrew, the Rev. William Taylor Snyder, and Chaplain G. Livingston Bayard, of the navy.
